Kenſington, May 13.

THE following Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, and the reſt of his Majeſty's Commiſſioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London, has been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, and the reſt of his Majeſty's Commiſſioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, and the reſt of your Majeſty's Commiſſioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London, beg Leave moſt heartily to congratulate your Majeſty upon that glorious Succeſs with which your Councils and Arms have been of late ſo ſignally bleſſed.

It is with the greateſt Satisfaction we ſee, that Peace and Quiet, ſo long enjoyed under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Government, again happily ſecured to us, after having been diſturbed by a moſt wicked and unnatural Rebellion, in Favour of an abjur'd Pretender, fomented by the common Invaders of the Rights of Mankind.

Animated by the Cauſe of Liberty, and led on by a Prince of your Royal Houſe, your Majeſty's brave and faithful Troops have ſhewn, that vain are the Attempts of the Abettors of Slavery, againſt the zealous Aſſertors of the Freedom of their Country; that Weak are the Tools of an arbitrary Prince, oppoſed to the true and ſolid Courage of a free People.

The glorious Part his Royal Highneſs the Duke had in the Conduct of this great Event, fills us your Majeſty's loyal Subjects with inexpreſſible Pleaſure: We ſee your Majeſty's Family eſtabliſhed on the Throne, and the Happineſs of our lateſt Poſterity ſecured by the Succeſs of that Day, where your Majeſty's Royal Virtues were diſtinguiſhed in your Son, and the Courage and Conduct of the Father ſo conſpicuous in his illuſtrious Deſcendant.

May that good Providence, which conducted your Majeſty to the Throne of your Royal Anceſtors, and hitherto preſerved you on it, ſtill watch over you; that, after a long and happy Reign, you may tranſmit to your Royal Heirs the peaceable Government of a truly grateful and loyal People.

EDW. GROSE, Clerk to his Majeſty's Commiſſioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Town of Nottingham, having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, Recorder of the ſaid Town of Nottingham, and one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Town of Nottingham in Council aſſembled.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Town of Nottingham, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms againſt your Rebellious Subjects in Scotland, incouraged and ſupported by the old and inveterate Enemies to this Kingdom. Nothing can equal our Deteſtation and Abhorrence of their wicked and traiterous Attempts, but the ſincere Joy and Satisfaction we receive from this important Victory, which has at once put an End to a moſt deſperate and for ſome Time ſucceſsful Rebellion, carried on in order to deprive us of our Religion, Laws and Liberties; Bleſſings which we have long enjoy'd under der your Majeſty's moſt juſt and legal Government, and which no wiſe Man can hope to ſecure to himſelf and his Poſterity, but by preſerving the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Majeſty's Royal Houſe.

Repeated Experience has fully convinced us, that no Conſideration of Danger to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, or to your Royal Relations, can deter your Majeſty from purſuing ſuch Meaſures as are moſt conducive to the true Intereſt of your People; and we beg Leave on this Occaſion, with Hearts full of Gratitude, to return our moſt humble and ſincere Thanks to your Majeſty for your great Goodneſs in committing this difficult and dangerous Affair to the Management of his Royal Highneſs the Duke, to whoſe Courage and Conduct we are ſo greatly indebted for this ſpeedy and compleat Deliverance from the domeſtick Dangers which threatened us.

May the Almighty continue to bleſs your Majeſty's Arms with Succeſs, and give you the like Victory over all your Enemies, that thereby Peace, Safety and Proſperity may be reſtored to your Majeſty and to your Kingdoms.

Given under our Corporation Seal the 5th Day of May 1746.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the City of Briſtol, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Edward Southwell, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, and their Recorder, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Paulet, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the City of Briſtol, in Common Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the City of Briſtol, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Throne at this Time of general Joy, ſincerely to congratulate your Majeſty on the great and wiſhed for Succeſs, with which it has pleaſed the Divine Providence to bleſs your Majeſty's Arms, under the Command of his Royal Highneſs the Duke, againſt thoſe deſperate and rebellious Wretches, that have, with ſuch Inſolence and Wickedneſs, attempted to reduce this free and independent Nation to a State of Slavery, Poverty and Superſtition.

Here, Dread Sir, permit us, with moſt grateful Hearts, to expreſs our Acknowledgments for your Majeſty's Royal and Paternal Care for the Britiſh Conſtitution, in giving the ſupreme Command, upon that important Expedition, to your Heroic and Illuſtrious Son; who, by his Courage, Activity and Conduct, has been the glorious Inſtrument of reſtoring Tranquillity, in ſo great a Degree, to theſe your Dominions.

When we reflect upon thoſe juſt and neceſſary Meaſures your Majeſty, in your great Wiſdom, has ever purſued, in order to preſerve to us and our Poſterity the free Enjoyment of the Proteſtant Religion, againſt the ſubtil Contrivances and open Aſſaults of its avowed Enemies, as well as to ſecure our civil Liberties and Rights againſt the Encroachments of arbitrary Power, we entertain a moſt lively Senſe of your Majeſty's Royal Regard for the common Good of your People, and of the Pains you undergo to make this Kingdom great and happy.

May Almighty God crown your Royal Labours with Succeſs; and ſo direct your Arms and Councils, that they may reſtore Peace to Europe, and ſecure to your faithful Subjects a free and uninterrupted Trade. We on our Parts ſhall be always ready to ſupport, with our Lives and Fortunes, your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government, (on the Stability of which depends our National Felicity) againſt the Bigottry of Rome, and the Tyrannical Deſigns of any Foreign Power whatever.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Bath, has been preſented to his Majeſty by —— Henley, Eſq; their Recorder, and Philip Bennet, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Paulet, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

THE Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in the Defeat of your Rebellious Subjects, has raiſed the Hearts of your loyal and dutiful Citizens of Bath to that Height of Joy, that Words are too weak to expreſs the Tranſports we feel: Yet can we not, without great Injuſtice to your Majeſty, be ſilent on this happy Occaſion. The victorious Event is indeed no Matter of Aſtoniſhment to us, ſince the Cauſe you engaged in is the favourite Cauſe of Heaven, the Cauſe of Virtue and of Liberty; and ſince that Cauſe was committed to the Care of his Royal Highneſs the Duke, diſtinguiſhed by a Greatneſs of Soul, ever ready to ſacrifice his Perſon in the Defence of his Country, conducted by the moſt conſummate Prudence, and improved by every Quality that can attract the Soldiery to a cheerful and willing Obedience to his Commands.

If the conſtant Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's Protection are too common to excite that that Attention to them they juſtly merit; yet your Majeſty's moſt affectionate Reſolutions to preſerve your People from the Tyranny of Arbitrary Power, and to reſcue them from the Miſeries of popular Fury, and upon hazarding the Life of your Royal Son in executing thoſe Reſolutions, demand the utmoſt Tribute of Gratitude and Thankſgiving, and ſilence the Clamours of Diſcontent and Faction.

We aſſure you, Sir, our Breaſts are inſpired with ſuch grateful Sentiments, that each Morning our Voices ſhall be tun'd for our Deliverance, and your Praiſes ſhall be the Subject of our Evening Song.

We impute the Liberty we enjoy to your Majeſty's paternal Care of us, and, in Return for that Care, will deſerve your future Protection, by a filial Submiſſion to your Perſon, and a legal Attachment to your Government, and will, as far as our Authority or Influence can extend, inculcate the ſame Leſſons to others.

To recompenſe your unwearied Endeavours for the publick Good, may your Majeſty's Reign over us be long and proſperous, undiſturbed by the Attacks of open Violence, unalarm'd by the more dangerous Machinations of ſecret Conſpiracies; may their Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Wales be as conſpicuous for their Happineſs as they are for their Virtues; may the young Hero return in Safety to this Part of your Majeſty's Dominions, and, by his Preſence, rejoice the Inhabitants thereof; may our Waters prove Fountains of Health to her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Caroline; may Heaven pour down the choiceſt Bleſſings upon the whole Royal Family, and to ſecure thoſe we enjoy to the lateſt Poſterity; may he crown your perſonal Virtues, add ſo great a Dignity to flouriſh on the Heads of your Royal Deſcendants, as long as honeſt Britons have any Reliſh for Liberty, are the ſincere Wiſhes of us your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Bath.

In Teſtimony whereof, we have cauſed our Common Seal to be hereto affixed, this Seventh Day of May, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Presbytery of Edinburgh, having been tranſmitted by their Moderator to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Presbytery of Edinburgh.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders met in the Presbytery of Edinburgh, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, with Hearts full of Joy, for the happy Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms under the Conduct of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, againſt the Enemies of your Government, and of our moſt valuable Intereſts.

The Safety of your Government, and the Preſervation of our Peace and Happineſs, we look upon as inſeparably united: Your Enemies we muſt always hold as our's: Your Succeſs we rejoice in as our Deliverance, recovering us from Oppreſſion and Violence, to the ſecure Poſſeſſion of all that is dear to us as Men and Chriſtians.

Such an intire Defeat of theſe audacious Rebels, who threatened the utter Deſtruction of our Religion and Liberties; —— A Victory obtained with ſo little Loſs of your Majeſty's brave and faithful Troops; —— The Preſervation of the valuable and important Life of their illuſtrious General, —— can't fail to inſpire the warmeſt Sentiments of Gratitude and Thankfulneſs to our moſt Gracious God.

Permit us, Great Sir, to ſhare in your Majeſty's Happineſs on receiving the joyful News of the Safety and Succeſs of ſo brave a Son: Permit us to ſay, we know no greater earthly Bleſſing, than to be under the Government of a Family which produces ſuch amiable Examples of acquiring true Glory, by deſpiſing Eaſe and Luxury, ſubmitting to Toil and Hardſhips, and encountering Dangers for the publick Good. With the higheſt Pleaſure we adore that kind Providence which raiſed up ſuch a glorious Inſtrument of our Deliverance at this Time, to fix the Hearts of all true Britons in an inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty and your illuſtrious Houſe, and for ever extinguiſh the Hopes of our inveterate Enemies.

With the utmoſt Aſtoniſhment muſt we view the Infatuation of thoſe Men, who would wantonly throw away the Bleſſings of Liberty, the ſecure Enjoyment of their Properties, the Eſtabliſhment and free Exerciſe of the Proteſtant Religion; or intruſt with theſe invaluable Bleſſings a popiſh Pretender, who dares to claim Free-born Britons as his rightful Slaves! Forgive us to aſſure your Majeſty, with all Humility, that it has been our utmoſt Endeavour, at all Times, to keep our People awake to a Senſe of the true Intereſt of the Nation and of our Poſterity, as depending, under God, on the Stability of your Majeſty's Throne, and the Succeſſion to it in your Royal Houſe. And we ſhould be moſt unworthy of the Character we bear, and of your Majeſty's repeated Favours, if it was not at Heart with us now to poſſeſs thoſe under our Care with a warmer Zeal than ever in Behalf of our happy Conſtitution, after being threatned with ſuch prodigious Ruin.

We truſt in our Gracious God, that our implacable Enemies will now ſee it to be vain for them to make any future Attempts, in Behalf of popiſh Tyranny and arbitrary Power, againſt a brave and free People, ſenſible of the Happineſs

they enjoy under your Majeſty's Reign, and reſolved ever to remain faithful to the beſt of Kings.

It is our conſtant Prayer, that God may multiply his beſt Bleſſings on your Majeſty, the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, the Duke, and the other illuſtrious Branches of your Royal Family: That he may eſtabliſh your Throne in Righteouſneſs, and defeat all the wicked Deſigns of your Enemies at Home and Abroad: That you may reign ſecurely in the Hearts of your Subjects, and long enjoy the unſpeakable Pleaſure of making Britain Great and Happy: And when at laſt your faithful Service to the King of Kings ſhall be crowned with an eternal Reward, your Poſterity may remain the Glory of the Britiſh Throne, the Guardians of the Rights of Mankind, and the Support of the Proteſtant Intereſt to lateſt Generations.

Signed in our Name, and at our Appointment, by Edinburgh, Jo. Jardine, Moderator.

The following Addreſs of the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, Dean of Faculty, Profeſſors and Maſters of the Univerſity of Glaſgow, has been preſented to his Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Montroſe, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Paulet, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, Dean of Faculty, Profeſſors and Maſters of the Univerſity of Glaſgow.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects, moſt humbly beg Leave to teſtify our hearty Concurrence in the univerſal and unfeigned Joy of a faithful People, delivered from Oppreſſion by the glorious Victory with which it has pleaſed our moſt Gracious God to reward the ſingular Vigilance, wiſe Conduct and Fortitude of his Royal Highneſs the Duke: As we have the deepeſt Senſe of your Majeſty's Goodneſs in ſending him amidſt ſuch Perils, to deliver this Country from that Variety of Diſtreſs and Oppreſſion it has ſuffered; which, though exceſſive, we had too good Reaſon to believe, would have been only the Prelude to a more intolerable Tyranny.

We gratefully acknowledge the Divine Goodneſs in giving us ſo many National Bleſſings in your Illuſtrious Houſe, and in preſerving his Highneſs amidſt ſuch imminent Dangers; and truſt in God, that Great Britain ſhall for the Future enjoy, undiſturbed, the full Happineſs of its Conſtitution, and reſume its natural Influence in maintaining the Liberty of Europe, under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign.

As in the Midſt of Dangers, we were not deficient in due Expreſſions of our loyal and faithful Attachment to your Majeſty and your Royal Houſe, and exerted ourſelves in the Cauſe of Liberty, in Proportion to our Ability; we ſhall ever continue our moſt earneſt Endeavours to promote the ſame loyal Diſpoſitions in all thoſe whom our Inſtructions or Example can influence.

We are,
May it pleaſe your Majeſty,
Your Majeſty's
moſt humble,
moſt dutiful,
and faithful Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Sheriff and Freeholders of the County of Forfar, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable William Earl of Panmure, their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Paulet, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Sheriff and Freeholders of the County of Forfar.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sheriff and Freeholders of the County of Forfar, having now, through the Preſence and Conduct of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, an Opportunity of meeting again in a free and undiſturbed Manner, think ourſelves bound, by all the Ties of Duty, Loyalty and Gratitude, to offer to your Majeſty our ſincere and hearty Thanks for that tender Concern and Regard you have been graciouſly pleaſed to expreſs for your loyal Subjects in this Part of your Dominions, by ſending for our Deliverer, from an odious and unnatural Rebellion, and to reſtore Peace to a Kingdom, of itſelf the ſole Cauſe of its own Diſquiet, a Prince, for whoſe Safety all Europe ſo juſtly trembles, whom every Lover of Valour and Liberty ſo juſtly admires.

Conſcious of the many Bleſſings it has enjoyed ſince the Acceſſion of your Majeſty's Royal Father to the Throne; the Effect of the late happy Revolution; free in our Liberties, free in our Laws, and flouriſhing in our Manufactures, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we could not fail to look on thoſe who dared to think of any Change of our preſent Conſtitution, with the moſt ſincere Hatred and Abhorrence.

But

But as ſuch an Attempt was contrary to all Laws both Human and Divine, ſo it has pleaſed the Almighty to turn the Edge of their Devices againſt themſelves; into the Snare, which they laid for others, are they fallen; deluded Victims to a deſpotick Monarch's lawleſs Ambition; to a blind and ſuperſtitious Religion.

With the ſincereſt Joy and Satisfaction we beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the Succeſs which has attended your Arms over theſe Diſturbers of our Quiet, whoſe Practices we have always held in the greateſt Deteſtation. To the wiſe Conduct, Vigilance and Activity of his Royal Highneſs the Duke, we muſt intirely attribute this Victory. May he daily encreaſe in Military Glory, and from being the Terror and Scourge of the Invaders of your Majeſty's Dominions, become the glorious Avenger of the publick Wrongs of Europe.

We unfeignedly wiſh that your Majeſty may long continue a Bleſſing to theſe Kingdoms, a Support to our Liberties, and the Proteſtant Religion: That your Arms may be always crowned, where-ever they ſhall be aimed, with that Succeſs which ought to attend on Juſtice and a good Cauſe: And finally, that the Crown of Great Britain may remain in your Majeſty's Illuſtrious Houſe to the lateſt Generations.

Signed at the Deſire, and in the Preſence of the Meeting, by the Right Honourable John Lord Gray, Sheriff Principal of the County of Forfar, at Forfar, this Twenty ſixth Day of April, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty ſix Years.

The following Addreſs of the Managers of the Town of Montroſe has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Honourable John Maule, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Paulet, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Managers of the Town of Montroſe.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Managers of the Town of Montroſe, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon the happy Succeſs of your Arms, under the auſpicious Conduct of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland againſt the Rebels: This Event fills our Hearts with Joy, by giving us a well-grounded Confidence, that this Country ſhall ſoon be delivered from theſe Confuſions and Troubles it has ſo long labour'd under by this unnatural Rebellion.

May the Almighty always grant you Victory and Succeſs, not only over your Domeſtick but Foreign Enemies, and that after a long, happy, and glorious Reign, your Poſterity may govern theſe Realms until Time ſhall be no more.

Sign'd by the unanimous Order of the Managers,

Ja. Coutts, Preſes.

Stockholm, April 29, O. S. According to our laſt Letters from Gottenburg, the Swediſh Officers are ſtill there.

Vienna, May 11, N. S. The Auſtrian Army was to have paſſed the Taro in the Night between the 3d and 4th Inſtant, in the Face of the Enemy, General Nadaſti being to have led the Avant Guard that was to have been compoſed of all the Huſſars, Waraſdins, and Horſe and Foot Grenadiers; but by Letters of the 4th Inſtant it appears, that M. de Gages, who, according to the Reports of the Deſerters, has not above 15 or 16000 Men, retired the Day before, and left the Paſſage free, but the Route that he has taken is not yet known, or at leaſt not yet confeſſed. In the mean while M. de Caſtellar has gained the Genoeſe Territory, having made 200 of his Officers do the Duty of common Grenadiers, in forming the Rear Guard. It is aſſured by private Letters from Mantua, that, upon the Retreat of M. de Caſtellar, the Number of Deſerters from his Corps was ſo conſiderable as to have made it unſafe to let them enter into the Town, eſpecially as ſo many Spaniſh Priſoners were already in the Place. The Reaſon why the Auſtrians deferred ſo long the Paſſage of the Taro, was principally the Want of Carriages, which the Parmeſan Peaſants had removed out of their Reach. Prince Lobcowitz ſet out the Day before Yeſterday for the Army upon the Rhine.

Berlin, May 14, N. S. The King of Pruſſia ſet out Yeſterday for Pyrmont. He propoſed to be at Saltzdal To-day, to ſtay with the Duke and Dutcheſs of Brunſwick till the 16th, and then to purſue his Journey. His Pruſſian Majeſty is expected back the 10th of next Month, and it is thought he will go to Sileſia ſoon after his Return. M. Podewils, who was formerly his Pruſſian Majeſty's Miniſter Plenipotentiary at the Hague, is now publickly nominated to go in the ſame Character to the Court of Vienna, and is promoted on this Occaſion to the Dignity of Miniſter of State. He propoſes to begin his Journey the latter End of this Month.

Copenhagen, May 14. The Mediterranean Squadron was Yeſterday under Sail, in order to fall down into the Sound, but the Wind not ſerving, they were forced to caſt Anchor a few Miles from hence, near the Coaſt of Sweden.

Hague, May 20. M. Bathiani has effectuated his Retreat without any Loſs or Moleſtation, and has found it adviſeable to puſh the ſame quite to Breda, where he is ſuppoſed to have arrived laſt Night or this Morning. The Marſhal has left nothing behind him, except a few Men in Fort Marguerite, and in the Cittadel of Antwerp.

Inverneſs, May 5. It is thought that our Stay here will not be long, from the Diſpoſitions which are making for carrying forward Proviſions, of which a very conſiderable Quantity has been amaſſed here.

Commodore Smith receiv'd Yeſterday Advice from Capt. Jefferys, of the Scarborough, dated Deer Sound, in the Orkneys, the 27th paſt, that a Ship from New England was put in there, ſent Expreſs from the Governor to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, with an Account, that one of his Majeſty's 20 Gun Ships, with a Privateer, had taken a Galleon, which was by far the richeſt Prize that had been made ſince the War began, ſhe having on board a Million Sterling in Bullion. The Captain of the Scarborough writes further, that every Thing was quiet in thoſe Parts, the Rebels having been gone above a Fortnight from thence.
